Are You Stressed Today?

Stress-it's a knotted feeling in your stomach...a headache that won't go away...anxiety that you can't escape even at the end of an exhausting day. It may come from difficult work, financial burden or personal circumstances, or you may not even know its source. You feel overwhelmed, frazzled, burned out and uncertain of the road ahead.

Dr. Shelton, Fellow and Director of Professional Development with the National Center for Crisis Management, has provided consultation, development and training to the law enforcement, emergency services, corporate, industrial, insurance, medical and education community in the area of Stress Management, Crisis, Trauma and Violence.

Join us Today, March 4, at 2pm, as Dr. Shelton, will explore the nature of stress, how it impacts your life on so many levels. In this presentation you will learn the importance of balance in the Physical, Emotional, social and Spiritual facets of your life. The concepts of Awareness, Attitude and Action will become invaluable tools to help you to: 1. Identify the stress in your life; 2. Choose a positive stress managing attitude. 3. Select steps to regain control of your stress at home, work, and in your relationships.

 Spread the word! Join us Today at 2pm in the Parish hall & learn how to improve the quality of your life

America Magazine Article

On Feb 14, 2018 America Media/Magazine printed an article by Fr Jack Bentz, SJ titled:

"Dear regular Mass-goers: the seats at the end of the pew aren't for you."

In his article Fr. Bentz goes on to explain quite well that as faithful church going Catholics we say a lot about what we REALLY feel by where we sit in church.

He states very clearly that we can have the best greeters at the doors with the kindest smiles, but if we make folks climb over us to get into the pews...we've said the exact opposite of what we want to proclaim about new comers being welcome. He even goes so far as to suggest that sitting in the middle of the pew is a sign of hope, hope that others will actually come and join us in prayer and worship.

With allowances being made for our elderly and those families who need to move around with children, we want to encourage each other to take this idea of where we sit in church to heart.

We know that we have heard this idea so often, that we are a welcoming community, that we want to be even better at making the stranger feel at home among us. How the very act of where we sit in church helps us proclaim by our actions what we believe! We can't hear often enough how "moving to the middle" physically as well as ideologically, makes so much sense in our fast paced, stress filled world.

We invite you to find and read this article in America magazine and take some time to pray about how you want your actions in church to proclaim what you believe. Is there room in your pew for someone to pray with you? Is there room in your heart?

CURIOUS ABOUT THE CATHOLIC CHURCH-ADULT INITIATION

You know we talk about RCIA all the time...we always want to make sure you know what that is...the RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION FOR ADULTS is simply put, the way folks with questions about the Catholic church learn about us and if they desire, how they become Catholic. It is the most amazing gift to be a part of someone's faith journey. We have one of the few YEAR ROUND processes in the Archdiocese of NY. That means that anyone can begin their journey by coming to ask their questions at any point in the year. It also means that we always love to have parishioners join us, helping with hospitality and making strangers feel welcome on any Monday night. If you have cookies in your house that you know you shouldn't be eating...why not bring them by on a Monday night and stay for the conversation? If you like to bake or want to donate a case of water...come join us for prayer and some faith talk. Get to know our inquirers and let them learn about SFDS by meeting you. We gather at 7pm in the parish house and you (and your friend with questions about the Catholic church) are always welcome.
